Residential on 0.20 Acres

SPRING VALLEY, Washington, DC

Immaculately updated and classic Spring Valley fieldstone home on one of the neighborhoods most desirable streets with private access to Spring Valley Park. 4956 Quebec Street is a sophisticated property that has been beautifully maintained and expanded over the years. A bluestone path and bright red front door welcomes you into the homes two-floor entry foyer which is centered around a dramatic curved staircase. Large rooms with excellent flow dominate the main level and create a space ideal for parties and entertaining. The formal living room features original moldings, two distinct seating areas and a charming fireplace. The oversized formal dining room has ample room for a seating of 10 or more and is serviced by a new gourmet kitchen with eat-in breakfast area, oversized island and direct access to a wraparound rear teak deck with park views. Adjacent to the kitchen is the expanded family room and full bar with rich custom wood finishes, fireplace, coffered ceilings and three exposures of French doors leading outside. Upstairs on the 2nd floor you will find four full bedrooms including a sumptuous owners suite with flanking walk-in closets, spa-like bathroom, fireplace and views of the abutting park. The third-floor features two additional bedrooms with sun drenched skylights and a full hall bathroom. A functional lower level features a separate 7th bedroom (Au-pair suite) with private entry, a climate-controlled wine cellar, expansive home gym or recreation area and a true two car garage. Meticulous landscaping, hardscapes and outdoor entertaining areas make this home a private refuge nestled among the trees and yet a short distance from the amenities of Spring Valley and NW Washington DC.
